

The Communication Group plc

Wired
May/June Issue 2018
Circulation: 850,000

WIRED

THE INSIDER EVENT EDIT

Somnai
Clerkenwell, London
March 1-May 6, 2018

Created by dotdotdot, a design studio specialising in merging virtual reality experiences with multi-sensory aspects and live performances, Somnai is a lucid dreaming experience being brought to London. Using immersive technologies, Somnai aims to awaken all of the human senses, so that participants will be able to access and control their subconscious in their sleep - all in 90 minutes.

The Trash-ic or Trash in The Face of Beauty
Saatchi Gallery, London
May 17-20, 2018

The second show of French Lebanese artist, painter and philanthropist Mounir Rebeiz, this exhibition will display Rebeiz's personal view on current societal issues, exploring the fine line between trash and beauty, and how they can coexist in art.

Brain Bar Budapest
Budapest, Hungary
June 1-2, 2018

Worldwide experts gather in Budapest to discuss the future of technology, data, geopolitics, food and humankind. Speakers range from Margrethe Vestager, European Commissioner of Competition Policy, to Kine Macgregor, an internationally acclaimed yogi with over a million followers on Instagram.

Henley Festival
Henley-on-Thames
July 11-15, 2018

Uniting the best in music and culture, the Henley Festival takes place over five days in the English countryside. Showcasing music, art, comedy and food - all of the highest standard - this strictly black-tie event is set to have an atmosphere like no other.

PHOTOGRAPHY: SHUTTER

Live the WIRED life

Events, new products and promotions
Compiled by Amira Arasteh

Arper Ply H-36 arper.com £215 - £880

These curved plywood tables are finished in natural oak and are the perfect size for the lounge. The clean lines of the simple triangular form makes them suitable for all sorts of interiors - and if this style is too neutral, they also come in black or red.

B&O Play M3 Speaker beoplay.com £279

Small in size but offering high quality sound, this wireless speaker from B&O Play can be a standalone product, as well as part of a connected audio system. With swappable covers in luxurious Kvadrat wool, it fits seamlessly into your home.

Eve Sleep Bedsread evemattress.co.uk £159

The latest addition to the Eve family, this reversible percale cotton bedsread comes in gorgeous soft grey, backed with fresh white. It's lighter than a full-on duvet, but still thick enough to be cosy. Matching cushion covers in the same textured pattern are also available.

Muuto Tip Lamp skandium.com £245

Solidly constructed from cast and extruded aluminium, the Tip epitomises unfussy, paired-back Swedish design at its very best. Available in copper, olive, white and black, this dimmable lamp features an opal diffuser for softer lighting, and an adjustable head.

WIRED
INSIDER

The Communication Group plc

The Trash-ic or Trash in The Face of Beauty

Saatchi Gallery, London

May 17-20, 2018

-

The second show of French Lebanese artist, painter and philanthropist Mouna Rebeiz, this exhibition will display Rebeiz's personal view on current societal issues, exploring the fine line between trash and beauty, and how they can coexist in art.